Wednesday, October 8 (Continued)

- 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm Lunch and (Optional) Book Club
The AHIC book club is a highlight of the Fall Summit and an opportunity for networking beyond the usual conference small talk. Get this year's book, Abundance by Ezra Klein and Derek Thompson. Find a copy at your local independent bookstore or download an audio version and make plans to join us.
- 1:30 pm -2:30 pm Open Forum
Join us for a candid, collaborative conversation about the issues shaping our industry. We'll surface key themes from the Roundtables, take live and pre-submitted questions, and invite attendees to share what's challenging, encouraging or surprising in today's market. This is your chance to speak up—and help shape AHIC's focus going forward.
- 2:30 pm – 3:00 pm Break
- 3:00 pm - 4:00 pm In Conversation with Investors
Join a candid conversation with AHIC's investor members who are investing equity in LIHTC deals nationwide. Panelists will share how their institutions are viewing the current market, how credit and pricing decisions are evolving, and what they're watching most closely in underwriting and asset management.
- 4:00 pm – 5:00 pm The Policy Landscape Revisited
As we head into the final stretch of the year, we'll revisit the evolving policy environment and its implications for affordable housing. Experts will provide the latest insights from Capitol Hill, including updates on tax and housing legislation, and what to watch as the 2026 agenda takes shape. This session will also include a closer look at HUD's priorities and potential regulatory and funding shifts, and how they may impact LIHTC investors, developers, and long-term asset performance.
- 5:30 pm – 6:00 pm Transportation to Dinner
- 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm Closing Dinner at the Missouri Botanical Garden

Thursday, October 9

- 9:00 am – 12:00 pm Developers + Investors Leadership Breakfast (invitation only)
