

Rachel Mokry CSH Staff Member Biography

---

Rachel Mokry is an experienced community development finance professional. Currently a Sr. Community Investment Officer in Seattle, Mrs. Mokry is responsible for underwriting and originating loans for supportive housing projects. Ms. Mokry also provides assistance to government partners in Washington and Oregon in shaping financing and development policies and programs that support the production of supportive housing. Mrs. Mokry comes to CSH with over 13 years of experience in affordable housing lending, community development, and community based financial services. Prior to joining CSH, Mrs. Mokry was a Vice President at U.S. Bancorp Community Development Corporation, the fifth largest bank in the U.S., where she helped structure complex LIHTC financings to fund construction of affordable housing projects. Mrs. Mokry also worked for three years as a Senior Project Manager at Impact Capital, a CDFI, where she originated and managed predevelopment loans for the development of affordable housing projects throughout the PNW. Mrs. Mokry earned a Master of International Community Development degree from Northwest University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Seattle Pacific University.

Short Bio:

Rachel Mokry is an experienced community development finance professional with over 13 years of experience in community and affordable housing development and lending. Currently located in Seattle as a Sr. Community Investment Officer for the Pacific Northwest, Mrs. Mokry is responsible for originating loans for supportive housing projects and providing assistance to government partners in shaping financing and development policies that support the production of supportive housing.